

LEG AKIMBO!

ANOTHER, MORE CONFUSING, ARTISTIC CELEBRATION OF LADY PARTS

The work of Swedish artist Eva Stenram, whose new show opens this month at Siobhan Davies Studios in London, celebrates the female form. Some of it, anyway. She does mostly legs, and usually just the one, having first carefully erased all traces of the woman to whom it belongs in the Sixties glamour shots she starts off with. The results are funny, seedy, and slightly psychopathic.

Positions: Eva Stenram, Siobhan Davies Studios, London SE1, 16 January to 22 March, siobhandavies.com

Eva Stenram's Parts features Sixties pin-ups and kitsch furniture as her source material.